Introduction

MOHAMMED ALAQEEL & Co ("MAC") is a highly innovative and dynamic Saudi law firm that has successfully built a leading professional team to offer a wide range of legal services to both local and international clients.

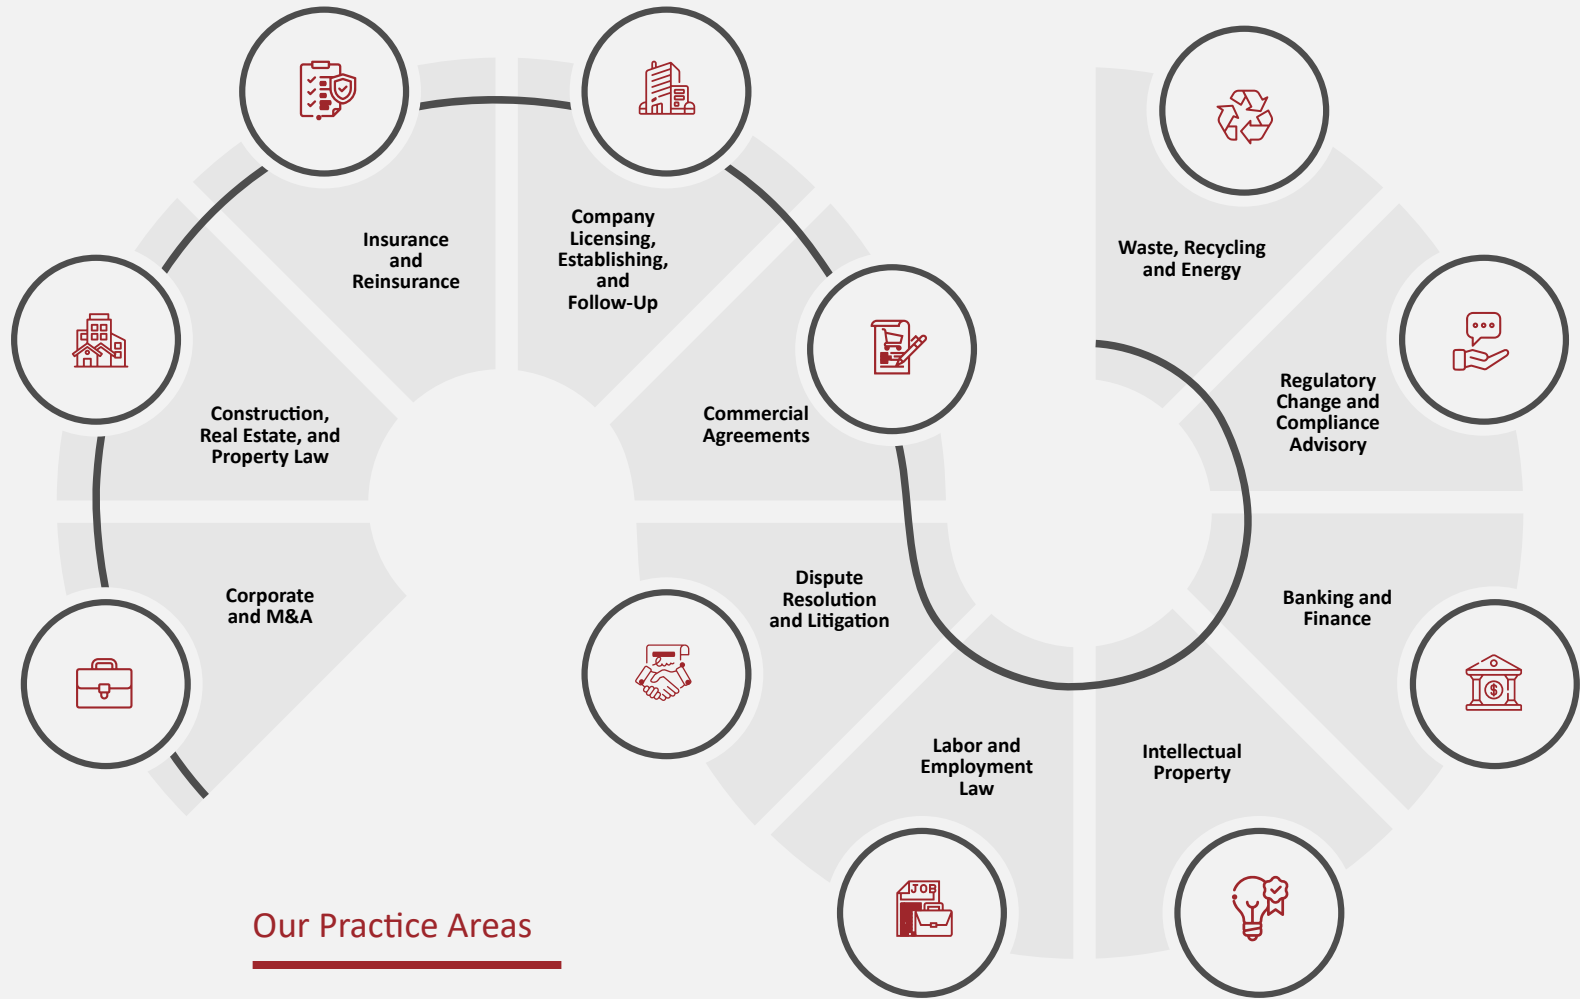

In line with the national transformation of our blessed country and aiming to achieve the 2030 vision, we endeavor on building and growing up our law firm under the strategic management of Mr. Mohammed Al-Aqeel our Managing Partner to deliver legal services that uphold the highest professional standards.

At MOHAMMED ALAQEEL & Co, we take great pride in our comprehensive understanding and extensive experience not only in the Saudi legal system and its diverse legal framework, but also in the Saudi business culture and market practices. This expertise enables us to provide our clients with customized guidance tailored to their specific circumstances, ensuring successful navigation through complex transactions.

We strive to build strong and enduring client relationships and work hardly on our availability, our responsiveness and personal service and on our developed interest in each and every client's business and industry.

Clients at MOHAMMED ALAQEEL & Co can benefit not only from our services provided by our extensive working team that encompasses more than 25 lawyers but also from services provided by our international alliances present in the major countries of the world (UK, France and China) with whom we collaborate regularly on different assignments.

Our Practice Areas

Corporate and M&A

The depth of our lawyers in corporate law enables us to advise on corporate set-up and restructuring, shareholders' agreements, joint ventures, shares acquisitions, corporate migration demergers and cross border mergers. We take time to get to know our clients' specific requirements and work in the way most suited to their corporate needs.

Our lawyers have extensive experience advising our national and international clients on mergers and acquisitions transactions. We offer our clients market-leading sector knowledge built up over years of working with clients across all industry sectors.

Construction, Real Estate and Property Law

We cover a wide range of legal services in this industry such as sales agreements, rental and leasing, real estate development, contracting and subcontracting, project financing, properties management, design and construction contracts including FIDIC construction agreements in addition to several types of innovative skill-full agreements for private and public sectors.

Our team has a comprehensive experience in construction matters when it comes to dispute with the public sector pertaining to the government tenders and procurement and its relevant legal framework. We have been called by the most prestigious construction companies to provide surgical legal expertise on mega projects.

Insurance and Reinsurance

MAC's Insurance Department advises on an array of matters including insurance policies, re-insurance, coverage issues, policy interpretation, errors, omissions and professional negligence, captive insurance, insolvency and schemes of arrangement, property damage, business interruption and liability insurance, contract drafting and regulatory issues.

Company Licensing, Establishment and Follow up

We assist international and foreign companies to establish a legal presence within the KSA and enter the local market. We advise and represent clients on governmental and regulatory steps and requirements to be satisfied to obtain the foreign business license approval from the Ministry of Investment of Saudi Arabia (MISA) and later on we take all legal steps and actions to incorporate the company at the Saudi Ministry of Commerce.

Through the life of the entity, MAC takes care of all the legal matters of the company.

- ▶ Advising on the modification of the bylaws and the corporate structure.
- ▶ Renewing the registration certificate and corporate documents of the company periodically, advising, negotiating and drafting agreements regarding shares transfer, capital increase and decrease, merging and acquisition.

Dispute Resolution and Litigation

We're a diverse and highly-experienced team that benefit from our firm expertise across all our practice areas. We always adopt a focused and proactive litigation and dispute resolution strategy, supported by decisive action implemented as quickly and cost efficiently as possible. We work with our clients at an early stage to identify their drivers and targeted objectives, which enables us to advise on the most effective dispute resolution strategy and approach when faced with a dispute or potentially litigious situation.

Commercial Agreements

MAC make sure always to provide tailor-made commercial agreements catered to the clients' individual needs. The firm's commercial lawyers draft and review various commercial agreements and provide clients with comprehensive legal advice in relation thereto. Said agreements include, without limitation: Distribution agreements, Agency agreements, Licensing agreements, Franchising agreements, Cooperation agreements, Sale and Purchase agreements, Consultancy agreements, Memorandum of Understanding for various projects, Distribution and Exclusivity agreements.

Labor and Employment Law

MAC provides effective and comprehensive advice on labor and employment issues in KSA, based on the extensive in depth knowledge of local employment laws.

The firm through its labor and employment lawyers provides the following services:

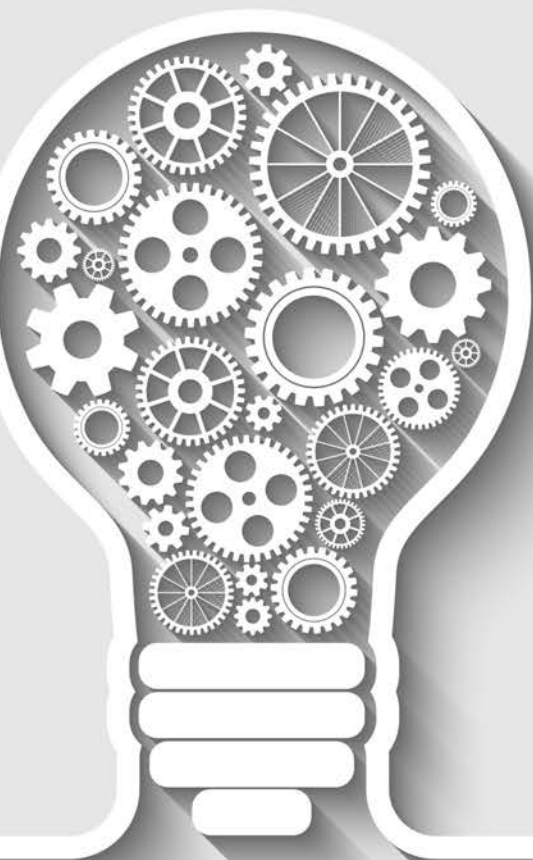

- ▶ Conducting due diligence on all companies' and organizations' documents related to labor and employment.
- ▶ Drafting, reviewing and negotiating employment contracts and independent contractor agreements, as applicable, for companies' employees, consultants, volunteers, etc...
- ▶ Representing companies and organizations in labor and employment disputes, including representing clients in pre-litigation negotiations as well as lawsuits before the competent authorities.

Intellectual Property

We assist our clients in producing a comprehensive brand management strategy which ensures the most efficient and productive use of their corporate assets. The international MAC network works cohesively to ensure that intellectual property rights are protected and enforced throughout the WORLD with very competitive rates.

MAC creates the most appropriate copyright advisory structures to protect our clients' corporate assets including copyright levies, licensing, dispute resolution and audits. MAC gives you the opportunity to draft your patents, industrial designs and drawings and register them all over the world.

MAC provides advice on legal compliance issues to medical professionals, hospitals, healthcare networks, defend medical practitioners and institutions from cases of medical malpractice, medical negligence as well as pursuing claims of malpractice for patients.

Banking and Finance

Banking and Finance is one of MAC key practice areas. We represent and assist local and international banks, financial institutions, investment funds, borrowers and guarantors by providing legal advice in all aspects of banking and financial transactions. MAC Lawyers gained extensive experience in finance structuring that starts from finding the source of finance, setting up the correct legal structure and delivering a creative product.

Regulatory Change and Compliance Advisory

We work closely with our public and private partners in special mandate to enhance the regulatory framework and reach an efficient and innovative model. Our work spreads across all major geographies and provides a world class benchmark on emerging regulatory trends, expectations and requirements.

Our team is known for their ability to advise clients in developing solutions to meet the challenges of compliance and corporate governance ensuring that new requirements are always met. Our deep legal knowledge and long experience entail us to accompany our clients in navigating the ever changing risk landscape in which international and domestic businesses operate by identifying and assessing the risk, managing its consequences and finding the best legal solutions.

Waste, Recycling and Energy

At MAC, we take pride in using our expertise to advise on all waste and recycling matters for both public and private sectors. Our dedicated team of specialists has been instrumental in guiding some of the most significant and high-value transactions in the industry.

Our hands-on experience in the waste and recycling sector has given us an in-depth knowledge of policy and regulatory landscapes in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia. This strong foundation has allowed us to successfully provide guidance on numerous acquisitions and operation transactions in various sub-sectors, such as water, WEEE, hazardous waste, oil, and plastics.

We have successfully represented leading regional energy companies by facilitating their collaborations with public authorities, and have been frequently called to assist in the establishment and organization of their operations within the Saudi market

Ethics and Conduct

The reputation of MAC is based on the conduct, integrity and abilities of our colleagues. MAC expects all of its colleagues to share its commitment to high ethical and legal standards and to avoid any activities that could involve any real or perceived unethical, improper, or unlawful act.

The success of MAC is dependent on the trust and confidence we earn from our colleagues and our clients. We all deserve to work in an environment where we are treated with dignity and respect. MAC is committed to creating such an environment because it brings out the full potential in each of us, which, in turn, contributes directly to our business success
